"There is to be a new Irish invasion of the House of Commons. So many cople have of late demanded Sir John Power and Co.'s Irish Whisky that the Kitchen Committee have. I am given to understand, made up their minds that the sale of spirituous liquous in the Palace of Westminster (nulicensed) is to be increased by the illeg supply of popular measures of that well-known Dublin brand. The agistion for the inclusion of Power's whisky in the lists of liquous supplied at the House bars was, I may mention, started so far back as the beginning of I session. It was purely a matter of faste, not of trade, and up to the preser late Sir John Power & Co, were in blank is not not of the whole affects.

A DELICATE PRINCELING. London, 25th December. There is much concern in Royal circles at the boalth of the boy Dake of Albany, who has always been one of the most delicate of the Queen's grand children. He had to be removed from Eton a week before the end of the term and his case is said to be very grave. AN ECCENTRIO. London, 26th December. A crank managed to got past the guard at St. James's Paluce last evening and entered the building. When asked his business he stated that he desired to see the Prince of Woles and that he was the bearer of a letter from Ohrist. The attendants saw that they had to deal with a madman and tried to get him to leave quietly. The man insisted that he must see the Prince and he was only stopped when he was threatened with a loaded rifle. Then he became violent. The police were summoned and it took eight of them to bind the intruder, who fought desperately. After he was bound he was placed in

of the newly-instituted rates. Mr. Duff Miller, in a letter to the Times, says that the motto on the penny postage stamp simply states the grand fact in a few words. The stamp itself, continues the writer, is the best advertisement Canada could have. Mr. Algernon Horsey, in the Daily Graphic, again questions the wisdom of the taste exhibited in the motto of the penny postage stamp, which, he declares, is an affront to the United States. Ottawa, 29th December. A general two-cent rate of postage all over Capada will go into effect on January 1st. THE PRENCH ARMY IS PATRIOTIO.

London, 28th December. The Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail telegraphs his paper the substance of an interview he has had with General Zarlinden, Military Governor of Paris, who denied the existence of any military conspiracy, against the Republic. According to the correspondent, General Zurlinden said: "I believe there is no plot, and there will be none, because the Army is Republican to the core. We seek no dictator. The name "Napoleon" may be music to our cars but we are the Nation's servants and our duty is to France. The Army, like the majority of the Nation, believes Dreyfus, guilty, but a declaration of innocence would not induce the Army to turn against the Republic.
